NEWS RELEASE

Boreal strengthens Board with addition of Patricio Varas

Karl Antonius reports:

Vancouver, B.C., March 29, 2017. Boreal Metals Corp. (“BMC” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that Patricio Varas has joined the Board.

Mr. Varas brings a breath of experience exploring and managing projects from concept inception, through discovery, leading to mining feasibilities and mine development. As a hands-on executive and director he has helped to fund and guide in the discovery and development of several world class deposits.

The President and CEO of the company, Karl Antonius commented, “We are pleased to add Mr. Varas to the board, he brings with him not only the technical know-how to deliver effective exploration and mining projects but also the corporate and financial acumen executed while running his previous successful mining endeavours.”

Patricio is a Professional Geoscientist with 30 years experience in mineral exploration, project management, advanced project evaluation, mine feasibilities, mine development and corporate leadership. Pat has worked and collaborated with major and junior mining companies in exploration projects that span the world in search for Potash, Copper, Gold, Silver, Diamonds and Base Metals.

During his most recent tenure as a founder, President and CEO of Western Potash Corp., Patricio led the company in the discovery and development of the Milestone Potash deposit in Saskatchewan. During his tenure at Western Potash, Patricio and his team raised over $240 Million, in some of the most difficult financial markets, to advance the company through discovery, multiple economic evaluations, environmental approvals, feasibilities and change of control transactions.

Patricio was a team member in the project exploration design work that led to the discovery of the Diavik Diamond mine while at Kennecott Canada Inc., a division of Rio Tinto. He was also instrumental in the project management and project design team-work that led to the discovery of the Santo Domingo Sur Copper deposit in Chile with Far West Mining.

Denny Mee has resigned as a director and the Company thanks Denny Mee for his involvement as a director of the Company.
